

State of North Carolina

MICHAEL F. EASLEY
GOVERNOR

MUSEUM WEEK

2007

BY THE GOVERNOR OF THE STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

A PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, North Carolina museums enhance the quality of life for all our citizens and attract more than 10 million visitors annually, thereby significantly contributing to our state's economy; and

WHEREAS, the local economies of our cities and counties are greatly enhanced by the efforts of these museums each year; and

WHEREAS, over 500 museums, zoos, aquariums, galleries, science centers, and local and regional historic sites in the state contribute to a high quality of cultural activity in all 100 North Carolina counties; and

WHEREAS, museums also strengthen the educational opportunities of North Carolina students and adults; and

WHEREAS, regular visits by school groups to the state's museums give children the chance to be exposed to outstanding examples of historical, natural and artistic exhibits; and

WHEREAS, museums offer learning opportunities which are not available in the classroom setting; and

WHEREAS, education is not limited to children; museums provide a lifelong learning experience for adults as well; and

WHEREAS, museums provide an understanding and awareness of culture and nature that can be rewarding for all our citizens;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, MICHAEL F. EASLEY, Governor of the State of North Carolina, do hereby proclaim May 13-19, 2007, as "MUSEUM WEEK" in North Carolina, and I urge our citizens to take advantage of the educational and cultural resources of the State's museums.
